Trauma Informed Substance Abuse Group Co-Facilitator
Job Description

Are you an enthusiastic skilled group facilitator who is passionate about helping men in recovery? Douglass Community Association is looking for you!

Group Co-Facilitator Job Description: Assists the group facilitator in delivering the Substance Abuse Men's Trauma Recovery and Empowerment Model (SA-M-TREM). Douglass Community Association provides the curriculum for the facilitator(s) to teach and training to ensure quality and consistency in delivery. Each workshop (24 in all) will require 2 hours of instruction every week. The Co-Facilitator will also be required to attend training meetings, provide feedback about program implementation, and be evaluated.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Ensure that Substance Abuse Men's Trauma Recovery and Empowerment Model (SA-M-TREM) is delivered professionally and effectively to meet desired learning objectives.
- Arrive punctually to site and expertly manage time during the course of the groups to ensure that all aspects of the curriculum are delivered.
- Relate to participants about their recovery and history of traumatic experiences.
- Collect data from pre and post tests and feedback from participants.

Experience Requirements

- Must have substance abuse facilitation experience, preferably working with men.
- Must have a BSW, (SPADA certification preferred).
- Must have experience working with individuals who have trauma in their history, mental health and substance abuse needs.
- Must have a familiarity with Douglass Community Association, Northside neighborhood.
- Must have experience in working with low income population – must be a diversity minded individual.

Desired Personal Qualities:

- Patience.
- Good sense of humor.
- Strong sense of presence in a group setting.
- Enthusiastic and objective-oriented presentation style.
- Passion for helping low-income men, who are in substance abuse recovery.

This is a grant funded part-time (2 hours a week) contractual position. Please send resume and cover letter to Sherry Thomas-Cloud at s.thomas-cloud@douglasscommunity.org.