

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Clinical Trauma Interventionist

Reports to: Clinical Director/Director

Hours: 40 hours per week

This is currently a temporary, non-benefits eligible position.

General Description: The Southwest Michigan Children's Trauma Assessment Center (CTAC) is part of the Unified Clinics at Western Michigan University. The Clinical Trauma Interventionist serves as clinical staff on a trans-disciplinary team (including social work, occupational therapy, speech and language pathology, nursing and medicine) in order to provide comprehensive trauma assessments for children ages 0-17.

Major Duties:

- Participate in CTAC clinical assessments
- Work with clinical staff and CTAC interns in order to complete trauma assessment reports, including reviewing, editing and providing feedback
- Submit final assessment reports in a timely manner
- Assist with training and supervision of student interns in the assessment and report writing process
- Complete interviews with biological parents, foster parents, and child welfare professionals when needed
- Assist with other special projects and duties as assigned

Desired Qualifications:

- Experience working with youth and families from diverse backgrounds
- Basic understanding of youth development and trauma in children
- Excellent writing skills (will be asked for a writing sample during the interview process)
- Excellent organization and time management skills
- Ability to work in a high-stress environment
- Ability to communicate well with others
- Must be able to work successfully on a team as well as independently
- Display cultural/social sensitivity skills

A successful candidate will have a Master's degree in Occupational Therapy, Speech-Language Pathology, Social Work or related field. Previous experience working with children preferred.

Appropriate licensure or certification, or progress towards appropriate licensure or certification also required.

Qualified candidates should submit a cover letter and resume via email to:

Cara Weiler

cara.b.weiler@wmich.edu

Subject line: clinician application

Application Deadline: August 31, 2015

Southwest Michigan Children's Trauma Assessment Center (CTAC) is a part of Western Michigan University, which is an affirmative action equal opportunity employer.

We encourage qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply.