

All Things Possible summer program provides high-quality, culturally relevant programming for youth ages 10 to 14 who live in Interfaith Homes. The primary goal of All Things Possible is to engage youth in a continuum of high quality out-of-school active learning experiences so that they can identify and build on their strengths, improve their social emotional learning skills, learn how their interests align with career pathways and gain exposure to community resources.

All Things Possible (ATP) is looking for a dynamic individual to work as a Parent Coach for the eight-week summer program located at the Interfaith Homes Community Building, starting in late June 2016. The program will be offered Monday-Thursday from 8:00 am-4:30 pm and enrichment and field trip activities will also take place on Saturday's. The approximate hours for this $12 per hour and the position is 20 hours per week for 10 weeks.

The right individual will:

- Value working in a multicultural/diverse working environment;
- Have a passion for networking and experience with connecting people to community resources;
- Demonstrate a strong commitment to the families that are served by the program and to seeing parents succeed;
- Maintain professional boundaries and handle confidential information; and
- Have great organizational and time management skills.

The following are duties particular to the Parent Coach in the All Things Possible Summer program:

- Develop a trusting relationship with the ATP program and parents;
- Facilitate regular parent focus groups to build relationships with parents or caregivers of youth who attend the "ATP" program;
- Facilitate parent events that help increase awareness about what community resources are available to them and their families;
- Empower parents to advocate for themselves and their families;
- Coach parents in goal setting and planning;
- Document contact with parents and provide weekly updates to the ATP team about parent engagement; and
- Other duties as assigned.

To apply please submit your resume, cover letter, and three references by June 13, 2016 to kljr1981@gmail.com Please put in the subject line "ATP Summer Parent Coach".