

Format Requirements

Films should be submitted as full-quality Quicktime/ MOV files on USB flash drive. DVDs may be submitted instead, but USB drives are preferred. All other formats (including VHS, Windows Media files, low-quality QuickTime files, etc.) will be automatically disqualified.

If submitting on DVD, entries must be formatted for NTSC Region 1 (North America) and labeled with the film's title, running time, and director(s) name(s). Please double-check that your DVD plays your entire film on standard consumer DVD players.

Legal Disclaimers

When you enter a film in the 11th Annual Teen Filmmaker Festival,

- you give all sponsoring parties permission to use film titles, images, names, and any other film info to promote future Teen Filmmaker Festivals;
- you understand that a jury will review all submissions and select those to be screened at the Teen Filmmaker Festival;
- you accept that the jury may not select films for the festival that contain excessive violent or obscene content.

Broadcast

The Public Media Network will cover the Teen Filmmaker Festival. PMN will broadcast entries chosen for the festival, awards presentations, and interviews with winners. Check www.publicmedianet.org for broadcast dates and times. DVDs of festival coverage and interviews will be presented to award winners and available to purchase.
